parables found in Matthew and its meaning A4 The Parable of the Sower Matthew 13:1-23 illustrates how the Word of God is received differently by various individuals. Some immediately accept it, good soil, while others let distractions or persecution hinder its growth. This highlights the importance of receptiveness to God's message and perseverance in faith. Hard Q5 Explain the significance of the phrase Son of Man as used by Jesus in Matthew A5 Son of Man is a messianic title in Matthew, often associated with suffering and humiliation but also with authority and glory. It points to Jesus' dual nature, both human and divine, and his ultimate triumph over death and evil. It is a less confrontational title for the Messiah than King of the Jews and better suited to the message for the Jewish audience. Q6 How does Matthew depict the relationship between Jesus and the Jewish Law A6 Matthew presents Jesus as fulfilling and perfecting the Law, not abolishing it. Jesus clarifies and expands on its principles, emphasizing inner transformation and love for God and neighbor over mere ritualistic observance.
